Zundell In Bid For County Commissioner

Clifford M. Zundell of Longmeadow, president of the Hampden County Selectmen's Association, announced today that he is a candidate for the Republican nomination for Hampden County Commissioner.

Mr. Zundell, president and treasurer of Zundell Hardware in Springfield, is currently in his second term as a member of the Longmeadow Board of Selectmen, and is chairman of that board. He served with the 84th infantry division in Europe during World War II, and is a past district governor of Lions International.

In a statement Mr. Zundell said:

"I have made the decision to seek election to the Hampden County Commission because I believe I can bring to county administration the important combination of business and municipal government experience that is important to the position.

"During my two terms as a member of the Longmeadow Board of Selectmen I have acquired an insight into the problems and needs of our communities which can be utilized in the best interests of the entire county."

Mr. Zundell said he will, if elected to the county commission, press for decisive action in behalf of a hall of justice complex in Springfield. "If we cannot provide proper facilities for our county court facilities, if they must operate in overcrowded and inconvenient — and even depressing — quarters, how can we ever expect to maintain the respect and support of the public? Important facilities of this nature should never be allowed to remain second class, as they certainly are now."

Mr. Zundell said he will announce "other ideas and programs in the area of county government during the weeks of the campaign ahead."

A lifelong resident of Longmeadow, Mr. Zundell graduated from Longmeadow Junior High School, Classical High School and Williston Academy before attending Yale University, where he received a BS degree in industrial administration.

He served two terms as a Longmeadow park and recreation commissioner, and was a member of the Longmeadow service building committee. He is a 17-year member and past president of the Longmeadow Lions Club and is a director and past president of the Lions Orthoptic Clinic of Western Massachusetts.

Mr. Zundell was founder of the Longmeadow Little League, has been a Little League coach for 13 years, and is a director and past administrator of Little League Baseball.

He is a former member of the Longmeadow Adult Education Council, incorporator and past director of the South End Community Center in Springfield, member of the Albert T. Wood American Legion Post in Longmeadow, director and past president of the Williston Academy Alumni Coun-

TAKE ONE GIANT STEP FORWARD . . . BUT SLOWLY!

by FLORENCE MORENO

ON APRIL 10th, the Congress of the United States got off its collective butt, and finally passed the Open Housing Act, effective during the next two years. Why not effective immediately? Perhaps if the Congressmen were trying to buy homes and couldn't, because of their complexions, the word would be "effective immediately." It just doesn't pinch, when someone else is wearing the shoe.

This being unilaterally a Christian community, almost everyone was involved last week with Easter observances. Did we all remember our Savior's command, "Love ye one another, as I have loved ye?" He didn't specify, "Whites only."

When men speak of racist white suburbia, do they speak of Agawam? The finger of accusation points, now here, now there, and everyone in these places cried out, "How could anything like this happen here? We had such good relationships with 'them.'" Will the accusing finger one day condemn us for what we didn't do?

There are many fine clubs in Agawam. Perhaps some of them could forego some of their fashion shows and desert bridges and treasure hunts, and maybe get with the important problems of the world we live in, like Brotherhood and how it starts with "ME." So much influence could be wielded by co-operative action in countless ways, Negro and Puerto Rican children could be brought in to enjoy summer programs with our children. Businesses in Agawam could be encouraged to hire Negro and Puerto Rican people, and not just for sweeping and picking. For every impractical suggestion, there are a dozen workable ones. The cancer of racism feeds on inaction and indifference.

Those of us who belong to church guilds and clubs, can we say we serve God if we don't hear our brother's cry for help?

Primary School Concert May 3

Over 450 pupils in Agawam's six elementary schools will take part in the Annual Band Time Concert on Friday evening, May 3rd, 7:30 p.m. at the high school auditorium. Features of this year's program are the All Agawam Tonette Band.

This group of 168 third grade students, selected to represent each elementary school because of their interest and ability to play their Tonette well, will appear in uniform, performing a group of familiar songs.

An outstanding Beginner Band comprised of 153 youngsters, 90% of whom have their own instruments, have prepared unusual selections such as Southern Roses by Strauss which features 25 flutists, and Carnival of Venice with a trumpet sextet.

The Advanced Band, 5th and 6th graders, and the new Concert Band will also play an interesting program of all types of music.

Tickets may be obtained through each elementary principal. Those desiring them should purchase them well ahead so as not to be disappointed. Last year was a "sell-out," and the increase of pupils enrolled in the Elementary Instrumental Program could mean that no tickets would be available at the door, cautions Mrs. John Lowell, instrumental instructor.

Agawam Interchurch Baseball League

President James Devecchi today announced an open registration for all boys ages 12 through 15 who are interested in playing baseball.

Boys from the recently disbanded Babe Ruth League and all other boys are invited. The only qualification is the desire to play baseball and all boys regardless of race, creed, or religion will be assigned to a team and will play.

Registration will be held on Sunday, April 21, at Shea's Field at 1:00 p.m.

The major objective of the Interchurch Baseball League is to provide an opportunity for all boys to play baseball. The league is now entering its eighth year of successful operation and provides some of the finest baseball in the area for over 100 youths of the town. The success is primarily due to the fine support from the townspeople.

There will be an important executive board meeting of the Agawam Council of Parent Teacher Associations on April 22, 1968 at 8:00 p.m. in the guidance office of the high school. Mr. David Skolnick, president, will preside. Mrs. Domenic DiDonato Vice-President and Publicity Chairman

What To Do About Obscene Mail

Mail patrons offended by pandering advertisements can now take steps to curb such mail, Postmaster Rober R. DeForge said today in announcing plans for administering a new law which gives each family the right to decide that an ad is "erotically arousing or sexually provocative."

When an advertisement sent through the mail is offensive on these grounds, a postal patron can now ask the post office to direct the mailer to send no more mail to him and to remove immediately the patron's name from all mailing lists he owns, controls or rents.

To assist patrons, the post office department has published a brief pamphlet — HOW YOU CAN CURB PANDERING ADVERTISEMENTS — which is now available at the Agawam Post Office. In addition to explaining how the law works, the pocket-size leaflet contains a form letter one can use when sending his complaint to the post office.

The pamphlet explains that when a patron receives an advertisement which is, in his opinion, pandering, he must send the ad, its envelope and the form letter, or one which includes its language, to his post office with the words, "Request for prohibitory order" on the face of the envelope.

Postmaster DeForge said: "This new law should give some protection to American families offended by advertisements they believe to be morally harmful, particularly to their children."

"Last year the post office department received some 140,000 complaints from those offended by pandering advertisements. While in most cases the ads were not legally obscene and were therefore mailable, they are often offensive and are usually not the type of material one would want his children to read."

He added that "Because the law gives a mail patron the sole right to decide what is offensive, and does not deny others the right to receive the mail, the Congress felt it does not violate Constitutional guarantees of freedom of speech."

While the patron's complaint will only be directed to the sender, Postmaster DeForge believes that one or two complaints will provide substantial protection because "the great bulk of advertising comes from fewer than 20 so-called 'smut dealers' who frequently swapping mailing lists."

If a mailer does not strike a complainant's name from this mailing list, and the patron receives a second mailing 30 days after the firm has received the prohibitory order, he may bring the matter to the attention of the postmaster issuing the initial order by writing him and enclosing the second pandering ad with its envelope. If the mailer still fails to respect the order, the postmaster general may ask the attorney general to apply for a Federal Court order directing compliance. Failure to observe the order may be punishable by a fine or imprisonment.
